

SAN DIEGO FAMILY MAGAZINE

April 2010

April Family Fun

Things change. That's why we've included phone numbers and Websites when available. Since most activities require advance reservations or have limited space, don't forget to call first to confirm dates, times and admission prices.

Encinitas Easter Egg Hunt Festival

Hop on over for live entertainment, pictures with the Easter Bunny, jumps, face painting, prizes and 24,000 eggs! April 3, 10 am-1 pm. Egg hunt times: 10:15 am (ages 2 & under); 10:45 am (age 3); 11:15 am (ages 4 & 5); 11:45 am (ages 6 & 7); 12:15 pm (ages 8 & 9). Free; fee for photos with bunny. Ecke Sports Park, 278 Saxony Rd. 760-633-2740.

Spring Busker Festival

The cobblestone streets of Seaport Village bring the unbelievable to life as extraordinary performers showcase their bizarre talents during a weekend of premier family entertainment. April 10 & 11, noon-5 pm. Free. West Harbor Dr. & Pacific Hwy., downtown San Diego. www.seaportvillage.com; 619-235-4014.

Still looking for last month's events?
Check out the digital edition of our
March issue at SanDiegoFamily.com

Mission Federal ArtWalk Festival

Explore the region's largest fine art festival featuring hundreds of visual and performing artists who create anything from painting to photography, to sculpture to music! Create some fun at KidsWalk at Amici Park where children and families find their inner artist through hands-on activities and interactive performances. April 24 & 25, 11 am-6 pm. Free. From Beech to Fir Sts., Little Italy district, downtown San Diego. www.missionfederalartwalk.org.

